Who would have guessed that seven years ago this puppy would make a Master Hunter, especially with a novice handler? But, we finally did it and what fun we had! Being my first time to train for field work we had plenty of highs and lows along the way and, of course, a lot of help from many people. Thank you to Roz Wilson for trusting me with one of her dogs and for all her encouragement and support. Thanks also to Carolyn and Art Baihly for getting us into this sport and for pushing us along the way. One of the best pieces of advice "Never give up on your dog" came from Brain Hartfield. This has become my mantra at the line as I set "Woodie" up and I am willing him to keep that straight line.

It is a privilege to have this great dog at my side and he can do it all from obedience to agility to tracking to hunt tests. His most important job however is being a certified cadaver dog for the Olmsted County Sheriffs' Dive and Rescue Team. Thank you Woodie, my best friend, for keeping my life fun and certainly interesting. May the next seven years be as adventure-some as the first seven.
